

“Be Thankful for November Events!”

With the passing of Halloween and Midterms, the semester has us looking forward to Thanksgiving and...gulp...FINALS. As you prepare for the second half of the fall semester, please take a few minutes to read about the upcoming Graduate Student Organization events.

GSO Officer Position Opening:

The GSO is excited to promote the opening of a position on the GSO Executive Board. The officer position of Communications Chair is an integral part of our team’s mission to provide strategic, concise, and streamlined information to our graduate student audience. Please visit www.loyola.edu/gradfriday for an application. Apply by November 15th.

November GSO Events:

Service Opportunity: Operation Oliver

Saturday, November 16, 9:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m.
1600 Ellsworth St.
Baltimore, MD 21213

The GSO will be partnering with Operation Oliver for our first service project of the year. The project will include a presentation about this veteran-supported community effort, a tour of the neighborhood, and a guided Jesuit reflection. We will be working on Oliver’s new farm site, so please dress accordingly. Children, family, and friends are welcome to attend this project. If you have questions about the event, or if you require transportation to the site, please contact gso@loyola.edu.

GSO Holiday Party

Friday, December 6

9:00 p.m.—2:00 a.m.

Mosaic in PowerPlant Live

Join the GSO as we celebrate the end of the semester and the beginning of the holiday season. Entrance to this festive evening costs only $10. The GSO Holiday Party is a wonderful way to celebrate this semester at Loyola with your graduate student friends. We will post FAQs and registration details at www.loyola.edu/gradfriday.

About the GSO

All graduate students at Loyola are automatically members of the Graduate Student Organization, a student-run group focused on representing and addressing the needs of the graduate student body.

This year's GSO goals include:

- Promoting campus and community resources
- Increasing publicity of graduate student events and services
- Providing strategic, concise and streamlined information, and
- Incorporating inclusive events into the GSO programming.

2013-2014 Team GSO:
